EDUCATION

University of Maryland, Baltimore, Baltimore, MD 2022-Present
PhD, Pharmaceutical Health Services Research (Concentration: Pharmacoeconomics)
Advisor: Eberechukwu Onukwugha, MS, PhD
Dissertation: Agency Costs in Employer-Sponsored Insurance: Market Concentration, Transparency Reform, and Worker Welfare

Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, MD 2019-2020
MHS, Health Economics and Outcomes Research

Taipei Medical University, Taipei, Taiwan 2013-2018
BS, Nutrition and Health Science
Certificate in Health Technology Assessment

EXPERIENCE

Graduate Research Assistant, Department of Practice, Sciences, and Health 2022-Present
Outcomes Research, University of Maryland Baltimore, Baltimore, MD

- Led cardio-oncology research on SDoH and intuitional level effect by analyzing SEER-Medicare data, performing statistical analyses, and writing manuscripts.
- Conducted mixed-methods research on patient and provider perspectives of contraceptive counseling, including patient recruitment, facilitating interviews, and data analysis.
- Co-developed FDA, NIH and ACS grant proposals through literature reviews, data synthesis, and proposal writing, contributing to securing funding for future research initiatives.

Research Data Analyst, Department of Pharmaceutical Outcomes & Policy, 2020-2022
University of Florida College of Pharmacy, Gainesville, FL

- Built a machine learning opioid overdose prediction platform by manipulating state-wide electronic health records (EHRs), enabling risk stratification for opioid overdose
- Performed survival analyses with Medicare administrative claims data to investigate effects of extended use of anticoagulants on the risk of recurrent venous thromboembolism and major bleeding events
- Led qualitative analyses to assess providers' attitudes and practices to treating HCV-infected patients with substance use disorder and/or HIV co-infection
- Evaluated the impact of direct-acting antivirals on incidence of hepatocellular

carcinoma (HCC) and mortality among Medicaid beneficiaries with HCV

- Conducted scoping reviews with Covidence on opioid and benzodiazepine deprescription protocols

Marketing Specialist, Oncology Business Unit, EMD Serono, Taiwan 2017-2019

- Launched oncology product in major medical centers by generating health technology assessment (HTA) dossiers with Market Access department
- Generated scientific contents of disease landscapes and latest treatments to support commercial team value message communications
- Managed over 50 marketing promotion and awareness events with cross function collaboration

Dietetic Intern, Department of Dietetics, Hualien Armed Forces General Hospital, Taiwan 2017

- Implemented nutritional intervention plans for ICU and psychiatric patients
- Promoted health behaviors with public presentations on nutritional instructions

Biomedical Accelerator Intern, Foxconn Health Technology Business Group, Taiwan 2016

- Developed content for brand marketing and managed media partnerships
- Managed communications with stakeholders and international biomedical leaders
